

Adult Hearing Loss

*Adult ear canal irrigation/syringing can be done in primary care unless there are contra-indications such as ear drum perforation, current infection or past eardrum surgery. If ear syringing is contraindicated then refer adults for microsuction via community ENT service via RMS.