

Irritable Bowel Syndrome pathway

Primary care presentation of Irritable Bowel Syndrome

In a women consider arranging CA125 +USS pelvis/abdomen if any of the following symptoms are present persistently or frequently, (especially if aged > 50)

- Persistent abdominal distention (bloating)
- Increased urinary urgency &/or frequency
- New onset symptoms suggestive of IBS
- Early satiety &/or loss of Appetite
- Pelvic or abdominal pain

References :
 1) <https://www.nice.org.uk/guidance/ng12>